

I fully support the FISTS CW Club position on Morse Code requirements. Removal of the requirements will only increase band congestion and further diminish the skill and knowledge of amateur radio.